Made to Multiply: How?

If it is true (and it is!) that we have been made to multiply, how do we begin sharing the good news? The Samaritan woman demonstrates that the best place to begin is with your own story.

What's Happening

CHILDREN'S CHURCH IS AVAILABLE DURING THE SERMON

SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR ALL AGES AT 11:00AM

Please note: Grades 3–5 will meet in the Library.

All students in Grades 6–12 will meet in the Teen Loft.

TUESDAY PRAYER HOUR—7:30–8:30pm on Zoom. Link in prayer email.

GOSPEL CONVERSATIONS TRAINING

Today at 2:00pm is Part 2 of the two-part training on how to share the gospel within our everyday conversations.

CHILI COOKOFF

Next Sunday, January 28, at 12 noon. Join the fun and enter your chili for a chance to win a prize, or just come to taste the chili and vote on the best one. See Nan Pariseau to sign up. Sides are provided, but please bring a plate of brownies for the dessert table.

BAPTISM SERVICE

We're having a baptism service as part of the worship service on Sunday, February 18. If you'd like to be baptized, see Pastor Paul.

Made to Multiply: How?

John 4:39-42

Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did."

John 4:39

Review:

1. Made to Multiply: Why?

Because we are a new creation and ambassadors

2. Made to Multiply: Who?

Our Oikos is where we make His good news known.

3. Made to Multiply: How? Tell your story:

Who you were before you knew Christ.

What happened when you encountered Christ.

Who you are now that you know Christ.

Kingdom Implications for Your Life: What is your story of who you were before you knew Christ, how you encountered him, and who you are now that you know him? Practice sharing your story in one minute.

Are you new? We're glad you're here! Fill out a Connect Card in the lobby.
